Amendment of the Fourth Schedule

5. In the Fourth Schedule to the principal Act,—

(a) under the heading "Andhra Pradesh", for the entry "2. District Boards", the entry "2. Zilla Parishads" shall be substituted;

10

(b) under the heading "Uttar Pradesh", for the entry "2. District Boards", the following entry shall be deemed to have been substituted with effect from the 1st day of February, 1960, namely:—

"2. Zilla Parishads including Antarim Zilla Parishads". 15

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The main reason for bringing forward this Bill is the urgent need to amend the lists of local authorities in relation to the States of Andhra Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh as given in the Fourth Schedule to the Representation of the People Act, 1950, for the purposes of the impending biennial elections to the Legislative Councils of these two States. District boards have been abolished in both these States and in their places Zilla Parishads have been set up in Andhra Pradesh under the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Samithis and Zilla Parishads Act, 1959 and Antarim Zilla Parishads have been set up in Uttar Pradesh under the Uttar Pradesh Antarim Zilla Parishad Act, 1958. Antarim Zilla Parishads in Uttar Pradesh will be replaced by regular Zilla Parishads in due course. In view of the impending biennial elections to the Andhra Pradesh and the Uttar Pradesh Legislative Councils from local authorities constituencies it is urgently necessary to amend the lists of local authorities for these two States by substituting for district boards these new bodies as in clause 5 of the Bill. The amendment in relation to Uttar Pradesh is proposed to be given retrospective effect from the 1st February, 1960 as the members of the Antarim Zilla Parishads have already been included in the electoral rolls for local authorities constituencies, as they had to be, based on the view that the Antarim Zilla Parishads are district boards to all intents and purposes.

This opportunity has been taken to propose certain minor amendments in sections 12, 28 and 31 of the Act as suggested by the Election Commission. In the absence of any specific provision, an order under section 12 altering or amending a delimitation order made under section 11 may not contain any provisions relating to incidental or consequential matters such as allocation of any sitting member to any constituency altered or newly created by the amending order. It is proposed to insert a new provision in section 12 for such incidental and consequential matters as in clause 2 of the Bill.

Though under the Act, electoral registration officers are charged with the duty of preparation and revision of electoral rolls, claims and objections in respect of entries in the draft rolls are disposed of by a separate category of officers, namely, revising authorities appointed in pursuance of rules made under section 28. This dual system besides being unduly cumbrous and dilatory results in making the electoral registration officers only nominally responsible for the accuracy of the electoral rolls. It is accordingly proposed to do away with this dual system and place the responsibility for disposing of claims and objections in respect of entries in the draft rolls on the electoral registration officers themselves and for that purpose to omit clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 28 of the Act, as in clause 3 of the Bill.

Because of its limited scope, section 31 does not fully serve the purpose for which it was enacted. Under clause (a) of this section a person commits an offence only if he makes a false statement or declaration in writing in or in connection with a claim or application to include his own name in the electoral roll but not when he does so in respect of some other person. Furthermore, the section appears to be applicable only to statements made in claims and objections made before revising authorities or in applications made under section 23 of the Act for inclusion of names but not to statements made before any other persons, as for example, enumerators at the stage of the initial preparation or annual revision of the rolls. Experience has shown that false statements are made at this stage also in quite a number of cases. It is accordingly proposed to widen the scope of section 31 as in clause 4 of the Bill.

R. M. HAJARNAVIS.
